

Country Report

MYANMAR

1. “e-Learning” Policies/Measures

--N/A--

2. “e-Learning” Promoting Organizations

--N/A--

3. Case Studies of Advanced Implementation and Utilization of “e-Learning”

Distance Learning Project via SOI ASIA

Title	Distance Learning Project via SOI ASIA
Summary	High-level educational resources that are available within Japan can be used to contribute the educational growth of Myanmar through the use of Internet and digital technology. Joint Ph.D. programmed between KEIO University and UCSY were to be established through distance learning.
Keywords	E-Learning policy/measure Higher Education Lifelong Education Distance Learning Interoperability/standardization/specification e-Learning contents/ course development method Metadata Knowledge management
Referential Materials (URLs or documents)

4. Publication of “e-Learning” Related Sources

--N/A--

5. Localization of “e-Learning” Related Resources

Establishment of Multimedia Class Rooms

Title	Establishment of Multimedia Class Rooms
Item that is/will be localized	e-Learning contents or learning objects e-Learning technology e-Learning standards Certification method of e-Learning professionals
Status	We are planning to localize the item specified above.
Source countries	Janpan, Korea, Malaysia, Singapore.
Description
Involved Organization	Name: JAIST, KEIO, HANKUK AVIATION UNIVERSITY. Contact person: Address/Phone/Fax/e-mail:
Referential Materials (URLs or documents)

6. Joint Activities of “e-Learning”

e-Learning Centres

Title	e-Learning Centres
Period
Partner countries	JANPAN
Summary	To produce IT Engineers, IT Network Engineers, and Software Engineers.
Keywords	Development of e-Learning system Development of e-Learning contents
Involved Organization	Name: UCSY Contact person: Dr. Pyke Tin Address/Phone/Fax/e-mail: pyke.tin@mptmail.net.mm
Referential Materials (URLs or documents)	